Interested in Church Music?

The Church is the sponsor, if not the mother of modern music. As such it should enjoy the very best music obtainable. Why be satisfied with an old fashioned piano or chapel organ when a few dollars down and the balance weekly, monthly or quarterly will put a splendid new Piano or Player-Piano in your Auditorium, Chapel or Church Parlors.

Write us your needs. We will explain how we can help you.

B.—CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER.

Adopted in 1869, modified in 1875, and adopted at each session since.

1. The Conference shall meet at 8:30 o'clock a. m., and adjourn at 12 m., but may alter the time of meeting and adjourn at its discretion.

2. The President shall take the chair precisely at the time to which the Conference stood adjourned. The first half hour of the session shall be devoted to religious services, and thereafter the journals of the preceding day shall be read and approved.

3. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but, in case of an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.

4. He shall appoint all Committees, not otherwise specially ordered by the Conference, but any member may decline serving on more than one Committee at the same time.

5. All motions and resolutions introduced by any member shall be reduced to writing, if the President, Secretary, or any member of the Conference requests it.

6. When a motion, resolution, or report presented is read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference, but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before action or amendment.

7. No new motion or resolution shall be made before the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following should intervene, which motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, viz.: Indefinite postponement, lying on the table, reference to a Committee, postponement to any given time, or amendment.

8. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President, to call him to order when he departs from the question, uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems the speaker out of order, or any other member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

9. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President.

10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject or more than fifteen minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

11. When any motion or resolution shall have passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration.

12. No member shall absent himself from the services of Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time such question is put by the President, except by leave of Conference, when such member has been necessarily absent.

- 14. Every member who shall be within the bar at the time the question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, excuses him.
 - 15. No motion shall be considered unless seconded.
- 16. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Conference, and, when approved, shall record them in a book provided for that purpose. He shall take charge of the journal and other papers of the Conference, and preserve them with care; suffer no person to take a copy of any paper during the interval of Conference, except with the consent of the Conference; and shall forward the journal and papers to the next Annual Conference.
- 17. A motion to adjourn shall be in order at any time, and shall be decided without debate.
- 18. No preacher shall bring any charge against any member of this Conference until he has first given him information of the same, either by letter or otherwise, ten days in advance, if practicable, so the accused may have an opportunity for defense.
- 19. When any brother intends to object to the passage of another's character, it shall be his duty to hand the name of the person against whom objections are to be made to the President of the Conference.
- 20. Two-thirds of the members present, and voting, may order the previous question on a pending motion.

[A motion to table an amendment to a resolution does not carry the resolution to the table.]

TUESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

Afternoon Session. Bishop Henderson announced Hymn 461 in opening the afternoon session. Julian S. West led in prayer. Hymn 490 was sung. The Bishop introduced M. S. Rice, who addressed the Conference. Quoting four passages of Scripture: "Preach unto us smooth things," "Preach the word," "If the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself for the battle," and "He drew them with the cords of a man," as a basis of thought, he emphasized in a most thrilling manner the importance of Preaching the Word. Hymn 222, "Jesus the Name High over all" was sung.

Bishop Edwin H. Hughes followed with a continuation of the thought of his morning address, reflected upon the lack of character in modern hymnology, and made an appeal for a return to the hymns which made Methodism famous and in the melody of which our fathers went home to God. He announced and the Conference sang heartily Hymn 259. The Bishop then preached from the text Job 42:10." The Lord turned the captivity of Job when he prayed for his friends. Howard A. Field led in prayer. Bishop Hughes, in closing, called on us to sing the old Moody and Sankey Hymn, "For you I am praying" while we thought of our Church people and families.

Evening Session. The evening session was the climax of a great day. Bishop Henderson and Hughes presided. From many hearts came expression of the influence and blessing of the spiritual uplift and vision of the hours of retreat with the Holy Spirit. Bishop Hughes led us into a very tender consciousness of the presence of our Lord as we received the bread and wine of the Sacremental Feast. ENDOWMENT FUND COMMISSION.

Sept. 18, 1919.

Permanent Fund	$271,927	24
Superannuated Preacher's Aid Society
Corporate Conference	18,754	30
Total in all funds	$396,132	64
Administrative Expense, year ending Sept. 30, 1919.
Salary of Secretary	$2,200	00
Clerk Hire	138	50
Office Rent	345	00
Box rent, at bank	25	00
Advertising, Michigan Christian Advocate	65	.00
Revenue Stamps	5	. 16
Corporation Seal	2	. 50
Traveling expense, Trustees	10.	. 18
Postage, Printing, Stationery	299	54
Total	$3,090	88

There has been appropriated from the interest fund for the benefit of the Conference Claimants this year, the sum of $8,000 of which $4,000.00 will be distributed through the Superannuated Preacher's Aid Society, and $4,000.00 through the Conference Board of Stewards.

Of the whole amount of permanent funds now held by the Commission and in the Auxiliary funds, amounting as stated to $396,132.64—$59,521.80 is subject to Annuity changes, averaging 6 and 44-100 per cent per annum.

Practically all pledged will be due in the coming month of October and should be paid before the close of this calendar year.

War conditions and the Centenary movement have somewhat retarded the collection of pledges, but all proper effort has been made to secure payment and many have paid in full to date while a goodly company have paid in part; however, a large number have paid nothing so far. All in arrears will be notified and asked to pay in full as early as possible in the new conference year; and pastors will render much needed assistance to the office by calling the attention of their people to this matter early and earnestly after Conference is over.

The principal Donor pays each six months on the basis of 17 per cent of what is collected apart from his own contribution and has already paid $52,000.00; while the two pledges of $30,000,000 each, are each two-thirds paid.

The two per cent fund by the members of the Conference is coming in encouragingly, but 33 preachers have paid nothing so far, and these brethren should no longer delay the performance of their manifest duty in this matter. This fund should be brought up to date by all members of Conference during the first half of the new Conference year.

No provision for publishing the status of this fund has been made so far, and if the Conference wishes such publication, specific directions should be given.

The members of the Commission elected by the Annual Conference and whose terms expire at this time are C. W. Baldwin and C. B. Allen.

On motion of C. M. Thompson the report was adopted and the Secretary directed to cast the ballot of the Conference for the re-election of C. W. Baldwin and C. B. Allen.

George Elliott Called to the Chair. The Bishop called George Elliott to the chair and retired to address the Owosso High School.

Transfer of Michigan Christian Advocate. A. W. Stalker reporting for the Committee of Transfer of Ownership of the Michigan Christian Advocate, read the articles of transfer and moved that adoption of the report which included the nomination of H. Lester Smith, C. B. Allen and Howard A. Field and Walter Fruit of the new corporation representing Detroit Conference. The motion prevailed.

Resolved, by the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, that

Resolved, That we, the members of the Detroit Conference, assembled at Owosso, Michigan, do hereby memorialize the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of 1920 to establish a standing committee on "Hospitals, and Homes for the Aged and Children," to which shall be referred all matters pertaining to hospitals and the varied philanthropies of the church.

On motion of E. M. Moore, the Newark Conference Memorial, No. 1, relative to the co-ordination of the Home Missions agencies and a unification of administration for the same, was approved.

The Home Missionary work of the Methodist Episcopal Church is at present administered by several independent organizations which have been authorized by the General Conference:

- (1) The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension;
- (2) The Woman's Home Missionary Society;
- (3) The General Deaconess Board; and
- (4) About seventy city societies.

The Church has sometimes suffered embarrassment because of a lack of effective cooperation between our various Home Missionary organizations, resulting in duplication of effort, and rivalry in seeking local support, thus involving waste and endangering harmony.

Therefore, we, the members of the Newark Conference, do respectfully memorialize the General Conference of 1920 that they consider the question of such co-ordination of these organizations that a unified administration be provided and reduplication and misunderstanding eliminated.

On motion of E. M. Moore, the Eastern Swedish Conference Memorial was concurred in.

Whereas, A feeling is making itself known in certain quarters of the Church and through the medium of the Church Press and the circulation of a Resolution from the Wisconsin Conference, "that the time has arrived, when in the interest of the kingdom the foreign language Churches and Conferences are no longer desirable nor essential to the program of kingdom extension, but in an unpatriotic waste of fundamental resources;" we would call attention to the fact that the foreign speaking conferences represent a considerable number of members besides constituents, and we fear that a large percentage would join other foreign speaking denominations, and that if Methodism shall continue to grow strong and reap the full harvest of nations growing golden in this fair land of ours, it must, as at Pentecostal of old, have the gift of tongues. It is the many tributaries that make the mighty river. It is the gains made in this conglomerate country that will strengthen the church, and if these gains are to be made the church must be properly equipped with the paraphernalia and instruments with which to do the work, and among these are the foreign speaking Conferences and Districts as well as the use of the language.

We do not believe that the insinuations, that the "foreign work is an unpatriotic waste of fundamental resources," and that "dangers are lurking in these foreign assemblies" are justified by facts. On the other hand, we hold that the foreign speaking church is the only curbing and controlling element of such "lurking dangers." Dissolve it, and you have removed from these people the best means of salvation from the evil and unpatriotic tendencies that we all fear. These churches are the wholesome leaven that is leavening these masses into true patriotism. We should therefore not destroy the vital agency by which Methodism is extending its patriotic and christian influence on the masses, but rather extend it by strengthening and encouraging the foreign work. The foreign speaking methodists, with few exceptions (and exceptions can be found everywhere) have been as loyal as the English speaking methodists. Our churches have gladly given up their sons to do and to die; our churches have carried on their War and Red Cross work as effectively as any church in comparison, and all we ask is fair play.

It is our judgment that no action should be taken by the General Conference until the Church has been fully informed concerning the meaning of this work to our Church and the kingdom of God. We believe, that the dissolution of the foreign speaking Conferences, or of any conferences, without their consent is unconstitutional. (See Discipline. Paragraphs 497 and 569.)

Therefore, We, The Eastern Swedish Conference, do hereby memorialize the General Conference of 1920 to appoint a strong and unbiased Commission, including representatives of all the foreign speaking groups affected, to thoroughly study the whole question of amalgamation and report to the General Conference of 1924.

That this Commission be instructed by the General Conference to let all sides be heard, that the Church may know whether or not it would further the cause of God and the Church to undertake forceful and drastic means in solving the problems which may exist."

Resolution by Board of Examiners. On motion of S. Arthur Cook, the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, for several years there has been maintained at Albion a Summer School of Theology for undergraduates of the Michigan and Detroit Conferences, and

Whereas, a school of this character is imperative if our young men are to receive the help and training to which they are entitled, and if our Conferences are to contribute as they ought to the preparation of an efficient ministry, and

Whereas, said school has, during the past year, been reorganized through the creation of a Summer School Senate, representing our Episcopal leadership, Boards of Examiners, Faculty and Student Body, and constituting a central body of control, and

Whereas, our Boards of Examiners have this year demonstrated that they can function through this Summer School with greatly increased efficiency in their service to the undergraduates, and

Wherease, the two outstanding difficulties are the securing of a complete attendance and of necessary financial aid,

Therefore, Be it Resolved:

1st That we individually and as a Conference, and particularly through our District Superintendents, Board of Examiners, Committee on Ministerial Equipment, and all other officers, pledge our loyal and hearty support in a united effort to secure the attendance of every student at the Summer School.

2nd That we authorize and provide for the raising each year, through apportionment to the churches or otherwise, of a minimum of two hundred-fifty dollars for the support of said school, on condition that the Michigan Conference authorizes and provides for a like amount; it being understood that this money when raised be turned over to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Summer School Senate, and paid out as directed by such Senate in meeting the expenses of the school, faculty and students.

C. THE RECORD OF OTHER CONFERENCE MEETINGS.

In addition to the meetings recorded in the Daily Proceedings, afternoon and evening meetings were provided of education and inspirational value.

Bishop Edwin H. Hughes gave the Conference Lecture Wednesday evening on "The Children of the Manse," to the delight and profit of the audience.

The Area Staff contributed largely to the program. Doctor George Elliott gave two afternoon and one evening address on "Intercession as a World Force," "Comradeship in the Cross and Conquest of Christ" and "Methodism's World Program." Our church has no speaker that our Conference hears with greater joy or help than our own Doctor Elliott. W. W. Diehl gave two addresses regarding the Rural Church. Peter Stair one about Religious Education, Hugh Kennedy Executive Secretary of the Detroit Area and W. H. Phelps, Lansing District Superintendent Michigan Conference, regarding the Conservation of Centenary Results. Each man showed mastery of these fields in which they are our leaders.

The Anniversaries of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society were addressed by Mrs. Dan Brummit and Mrs. Daisy Wood VanSant. These anniversaries were demonstrative of the splendid spirit which makes the work of these organizations possible.

The Sunday Meetings began with the Historic Love Feast. Presided over by Dr. W. H. Rider. In addition to the morning and evening worship was the ordination service in the afternoon. Under the leadership of our Bishop Henderson, this meeting was arranged with a wisdom that brought out its dignity and impressiveness. The Epworth League Members of Flint District were special guests of honor, and 139 responded to the Bishop's appeal to dedicate their lives to Christ's work.

Music was furnished by the Charles Wesley Club, Mrs. Virginia Eastmas Van Riper, the Vested Choir of the First Church of Owosso, and Mrs. Lillian Vogel-Harding.

PART VI. REPORTS.

REPORTS OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

Bishop and Brother Ministers of the Detroit Conference, Members of the Kingdom of the Spirit, organized for work:

My colleagues have bestowed upon me high honor, and also given me a great task in the effort to answer, not only for myself, but for them also. Paul said he thanked God that he was permitted to answer for himself, would he have felt so had he been called upon to answer for Peter, James and John, and Phillip and Thomas. To say nothing of Dystant, Dimond, Warren, Leeson and Fruit. As the brethren in the Cabinet give me frequently the title of Father Leonard, I presume the seniority has had much to do with this selection. I am nevertheless embarrassed at so great an undertaking, yet I must have the courage as I have been in Battle —— Creek lately. So if this report has no meat in it you will understand the reason why. By way of introduction, I quote from the statement and recommendation recently sent down by a committee of the Board of Bishops and to be read in all the churches last Sunday.

The great World war, taking the lives of ten million men, costing two hundred and fifty billion dollars, impoverishing people for generations. Setting into unprecedented ferment all nations, and classes of mankind and threatening the foundations of civilization has compelled all thinking men to serious inquiry by what principles, ideals and leadership the tides of personal selfishness, corporate greed and national ambition, may be stayed; and how the progress of man upon the earth may be assured. The intelligence of the church has been quickened by the horrors of war—that only in the love of God and of man is to be found sufficient healing for the disease of sin; that the kingdoms of this world, can find peace only, in becoming the Kingdom of God. She sees in the grief and restlessness of the people, an urgent call to go forward in the name of a loving God, and a sufficient Savior, into the greatest evangelistic endeavor the world has ever known. Upon the ministry this responsibility rests. If the pulpit is without vision and passion, the people perish. What mighty and marvelous events have transpired since we met in annual session. What triumphs of liberty for humanity. Few, if any, victories in history have been more complete, and yet, never did the sun shine down upon a more restless world.

I must not discuss at this time, the mighty issues settled and to be settled which are so vitally related to the kingdom, but simply to say, "It is the Christian church which holds the secret to a stable world order. The answer to red propaganda, and to the cry for a democracy that shall be safe for the world, is Christianity. Thank God we have taken the germ out of Germany, the worm out of the brewery, the serpent out of the saloon and buried John Barleycorn two hundred and seven thousand fathoms deep in Michigan, and with forty-five other states of the Union decreed with constitutional enactment that on, and after January 16, 1920, America a saloonless nation.

In the passing of the liquor traffic, the great enemy of humanity, of civilization, of progress quits the field. We must be vigilant lest law enforcement fail. For we behold the prostitution of great legal talent, to defeat the will of the people, for the sake of a part of the billion dollars raised by the liquor people to rescue John Barlycom.

Looking toward our field embraced within the bounds of the Detroit Conference, we cover forty-three counties with an area of thirty-two thousand square miles, a population of approximately two million three hundred thousand. Within this territory we have 590 preaching places, 534 church buildings with an estimated value of seven million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars and 288 parsonages value at seven hundred thousand dollars.

Our force is represented by 322 pastors, together with 82 veterans who summoned us as a cloud of witnesses; 76,000 members of the church, 590 Sunday Schools with an enrollment of 91,000, 300 Epworth League organizations with a membership of 14,600, 159 auxiliaries of the W. H. M. S. and 117 of the W. F. M. S. The churches show an average membership of 143, Sunday Schools 155, Leagues 47. This Conference has the distinction of having a district and a church which has led all cities in Methodism in amount subscribed to the centenary.

Of the seventy-six thousand members of the church within the bounds of this conference, sixty-two per cent live in the country and towns of less than five thousand population, or rather sixty-two per cent live in the rural field.

Many of the country and village churches are without enough young people to make an Epworth League. For as soon as the young people of these homes grow old enough to care for themselves they hasten to the growing centers to find employment. We pastors and superintendents face congregations in these communities in which the absence of young people is most disheartening. Not all of the young people have gone, many are yet at home, but pay no attention to the church because the church pays no attention to them, by failing to provide in any adequate way for their social, and play life, as well as their religious life.

The inception and achievement of the centenary is the miracle of our day. What capacities and capabilities we have discovered during the last year. Hear the testimony not of a Methodist but of one of the leading Congregational ministers of America, Dr. Jefferson of New York. speaking of the centenary, he says: "The most stupendous achievement of any branch of the Christian church in all modern history. It is in every way wonderful, it dazzles the imagination, and thrills the heart. The length and breadth of the work are equal. It runs far into the future. It is as wide as the world, and goes down deep into the soul, more than a money raising scheme, it was as vast a program of spiritual culture. It aimed not simply at dollars, but at the building up of the soul. As to organization, it was a marvel. As to machinery, well nigh perfect The patience and pains expended in mapping the field were immense and the way in which every branch of the work was analyzed and presented in detail, was a piece of consummate wisdom. The mobilization of the man power of the church was superb. More than sixty thousand minute men set to talking for Christ and His church. We of other communions beholding this fresh victory of faith, Thank God and take courage."

When we remember that many of the churches within the conference were closed nearly three months of the conference year, on account of the influenza, thereby greatly hindering the work. The pastors' reports will show that this has been a year of advancement. The conference exceeding its quota on the centenary by over $547,000.00. And I am sure if the resident Bishop and superintendents could have fixed the quota for the districts, with their knowledge of the local fields every district would have gone over the top, with possibly a larger total subscription. As some one has said "the time is here when we should be allowed to feel our own pulse, once in awhile." It is not conducive to awaken enthusiasm among preachers and laymen to have men come around and say. "We win or you suffer." I presume that is the meaning of the declaration, "Those who do not go over the top will go under." But over against such unfortunate drives—There was so much of sweet reasonableness, which produced hearty cooperation.

The human factors making for such great success for the centenary objective in our conference, is seen in the magnificent, magnetic and marvelous and brotherly leadership of our good Bishop. The splendid services of members of the area staff, with special mention of painstaking, thorough going work of the area secretary, Dr. Benson, and also Dr. Stair at the head of the Sunday School army. And we wish we could command language to appreciate the loyalty and great service of the pastors, who, with rare exceptions gave themselves heart and soul to the great task. Linked with them was the very efficient service of the minute men under the direction of the conference chairman and district chairman, would that we may have in large measure as hearty support and service from these minute men, church councils, unit leaders, and unit members, in the stirring messages and personal work, in the greater task now before us of personal, social industrial evangelism, which is now set going in our church. It will not only enrich their own hearts, but also a great in-gathering of multiplied thousands who must be won to Christ and His church.

There has been some outstanding and upstanding instances of strong leadership, upon the part of the pastors, and some wonderful revelations of latent talent and capabilities among the laymen. While the movement was emphasized as the laymen's movement, yet there was not much movement nor much success, without the passion, and push of the preacher. I am sure I voice the superintendents when I say all praise to the man who toiled, and triumphed, in reaching the full quota, and equal honor is due those who toiled as hard and failed to go over the top. When we ask whom shall the king, the church, delight to honor, it must not be upon basis of the amount secured, but the field where it was gathered. And when we would applaud the giver, it must not be upon the amount he gave, but how much he has left for himself. The reports as to contributions indicate that about 43 per cent of the membership subscribed to the Centenary, with an average of $20.00 per subscriber per year. Total, $3,159,173.

We cannot at this time in any adequate way measure the value of the Centenary movement. It emphasizes the fact that we have entered upon a new epoch in the history of man. Thousands who were thought to be sordid, selfish men, have awakened to vicarious living and dying. We are learning as never before that the worth, and happiness of individuals are bound up with the welfare of communities, national groups and leagues of nations. To be good we must live for the common good. The twenty-five thousand hearts in the league of intercession and the twelve thousand tithers, the response of a great number of you people to life service within the bounds of our own conference, call us to behold the coming of the Lord. In spite of all wars, disasters, social upheavals, industrial turmoil, aloofness from the church, divisions in the universal church, national selfishness and individual sinning, the world never has presented so many evidences of Christ's presence.

From the program, we are assured, we are not here at this Annual Conference simply to go through the ordinary routine of conference business, and elect delegates to the General Conference. The emergency of the hour, will not allow us to stop there.

Neither are we hear to formulate a program to fit every local church as to evangelistic methods. We are almost tired of programs. It is the passion of Christ that we need. Unless the pastors of this Conference get real deepening of the spiritual life, we shall not only stagger at the task before us, we shall fail. The next five years will determine, whether God can use the Methodist church to lead in the world opportunity, and task of protestantism, or whether lie must go elsewhere, to find human instrumentality to accomplish His purpose in redemption. On the challenge, to save the individual, the soul of the world, its ideals, its moral aspirations. The formula which Jesus gave long ago is still adequate. Tarry ye until ye be imbued with power. Earnest, thoughtful far seeing prophets today are registering their conviction that prayer released the power which has enabled America to purge herself of the giant evil of the liquor traffic; that prayer released the forces that drove autocracy to its doom; and that pentecost which gave birth to Methodism alone can save her now. And enable her to save a lost, war worn, heart broken, sin cursed world.

We face serious shortage of ministers. The H. C. L. and low salaries has driven men from the pulpit as well as from the school room. And something is needed to stop the growing tendency of our preachers to detached work. All manner of offices, religious, semi-religious and almost entirely secular, are being manned by ordained clergymen. These offices could be well taken care of by laymen. The General Conference should legislate so that it would be exceedingly difficult for church boards to lay hands upon so many preachers, and pull them out of the important work of the ministry.

Facing the great task ahead, we say, what a day this is, for the men who have understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do.

The reaction of the money drive of the Centenary has already set in, in some of the churches, so report the pastors. Dr. Hancher shows great courage, and confidence, when he says every dollar of the subscription to the Centenary will be paid. God grant that it may be so. Nevertheless, eternal attention to the collection of the subscription is the price we shall pay if there is not a large shrinkage in this matter.

Nothing but a more thorough going campaign, and hearty cooperation in Christian stewardship will enable the church to reach the goal of actual possession of the one hundred and thirteen millions subscribed toward the Centenary.

Where a church did not carry out the program in preparation of heart and mind, for the subscriptions, so that the greatly increased giving for kingdom progress was not buttressed by a deeper consecration and larger vision, of the purpose of God in Redemption, subscribers to the cause, will in many cases, either fail to pay their obligation, or rob other important interests of the church to carry on this. We may as well face these facts today, and see what we as preachers need to be leaders in the much larger meaning and task of the Centenary. We have set the people a good example in giving in that the subscriptions by the preachers are double in per cent that of the laymen on the average. How to keep the average man glad in his heart that he subscribed, can only be answered, by having the mind which was in Christ, who found His joy in giving His life a ransom for many. The call for a million souls to be gathered into the church by the thirtieth of next June is a staggering proposition.

We are certainly concerned about our veterans, and the widows of departed brothers, as to how their necessities are to be met in these days of the high cost of living. They have no official boards to come to their relief. We ought to devise some plan at this conference whereby these worthy retired laborers shall receive the full allowance of $18.50 for each year of service, instead of the measly sum of $8.00 per year. We believe it is important that this conference give careful attention to the proposition, to place the basis of assessment for conference claimants upon the grade of the charge rather than upon the pastors salary.

Our effort to secure an adequate endowment should have the loyal support of every member of the conference, as it looks to the future welfare of the younger men of the conference. But such an emergency is upon us to meet the needs of the eighty-three retired ministers, and the sixty-five widows of deceased ministers today, some special provision to raise the full amount should be made at this conference. Whatever may be the needs of men now in the service, it is in no comparison to the needs of the fathers and mothers who have made the marvelous achievements of the Centenary possible.

And what about the forty-two supply pastors who cannot look to any support when they shall have grown old in the service. These men made it possible for us to keep charges in tact, and as far as service and acceptability is concerned many of them are entitled to membership in the conference. How these men can keep their families and keep going in good heart, on their present salary, is a mystery to the wisest men.

The rural problem grows more acute. The steady stream of the people from country and village, leaves empty pews and a discouraged pulpit. When we talk about closing the country church here, and there, we must not forget, the old folks, the dear hearts who by love and labor, prayer and christian passion, have kept the church alter fires aglow and in the good old fashioned revivals, gave birth to three-fourths of the preachers of Methodism.

More pastoral visitation, closer contact of preacher and people, systematic methods in contributing to the support of the local church is the crying need upon the rural field.

The superintendents desire to express our high appreciation of the love and loyalty, the sympathetic cooperation of the pastors of the conference during the year. The Centenary campaign has necessarily interfered with the disciplinary direction as to holding quarterly conferences. And we appreciate the fact that the pastors have rendered great service in helping the laymen to see that matters of more importance are now committed to the district superintendents, than the holding of four conferences during the year, or of preaching so many times of a charge during the year. We are somewhat embarrassed, the fact we must seemingly ignore the discipline rule, or attempt that which is today decidedly impractical, in regard to the required number of quarterly conferences. We trust the Committee on Revision, or temporal economy will give the next General Conference a chance, to so legislate on this matter that instead of calling it a quarterly conference which is a misnomer we shall have disciplinary provision, for membership meetings in which every member of the church over twenty-one years of age shall have a voice in the election of all the officers of the local church. While we are talking about democracy, let us have more of it in Methodisin.

Finally Brethren: While we are requiring certain educational standards for admission into the conference, we think it would be for the interests of the church, and to the credit of the ministry as well, if the following covenant was added, to be subscribed to by certain members of this conference, and all others who may apply for admission from this day on:

Will you interest yourself in the moral reform, and all movements for community betterment where you reside? Answer, I will.

Will you answer all official communications promptly and fully? Answer, I will.

Will you keep a correct record of the membership on your charge, of the quick and the dead, recording all baptisms, marriages, removals and funerals? Answer, I will.

Will you by precept, and example encourage all your people in greater loyalty to all the connectional interests of the church? Answer, I will.

Will you by a carefully prepared constituency roll, and visiting list and if on a circuit prepare a geographical survey and plan of the location, the dwelling places of the membership of the churches and the constituency of the charge, together with a complete list of all the officials of the churches, to be given to your successor? Answer, I will.

Will you pay all the bills you owe or satisfactorily settle the same before leaving the charge and never seek a discount on what you purchase, remembering "For woe unto him that asketh for a discount, for he shall be discounted."

Brethren if ye do these things with all others a minister ought to do for so an abundant entrance shall be administered unto you into the everlasting habitation of an indestructible brotherhood, and fellowship of the followers of our Lord Jesus Christ in this world and that which is to come.

THE CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The historical interests of the churches and conference are important. Especially in these of world undertakings, and epoch-making local church enterprises, we are making history rapidly. We respectfully urge our pastors and church officers to preserve church records and other documents, notifying the Conference Historian of the existence of such historical material that as complete a tabulation as possible of all conference historical data shall be compiled.

We also recommend that the Conference Historical Society shall have a place for an address on the program of the next annual conference.

It is recommended that the collection taken last year for the purpose of preparing a service flag for the conference shall be turned over to the Conference Historical Society to be used to prepare a complete constituency roll of all the members of the churches who went into war service. Also compile a roll of those who went from our parsonage homes into the service. The Society shall prepare a permanent record of such names and place in the archives of the Conference Historical Society.

We earnestly recommend that the Historical Society shall inquire into the possibility of the Conference securing possession of the property where the first Methodist Episcopal Church of Michigan was located.

We recommend the election of the following officers:

There are fifty-one old people in the family today and the average for the year has been fifty. The capacity of the Home is inadequate to provide for all eligible and worthy applicants.

The Home has had a successful year financially, the best in its history.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Historic to Methodism is the affirmation of the possibility and the necessity of permeating all the educational life of the world with the religious ideal and all the religious life with the educational ideal. Methodism was born in the halls of a university. We affirm that religion without education easily becomes superstition and that education apart from religion is superficial and ineffective. We pledge the continuance of our devotion to the purpose of religious education historic in Methodism.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church is the accredited channel through which the church functions in promoting its educational interests. The success of the recent Jubilee—Educational Fund drive points the way to the great possibilities for a unified program of advance throughout the church to deal with our urgent responsibilities for educational reconstruction and progress at home and abroad. There is a real need for a general church foundation fund to encourage our colleges in raising adequate endowments. We commend the steps that are being taken by the board in providing scholarships for the service men returning to college, and for the proposed strengthening of our schools in the Southern Highlands.

The high type of material furnished in the annual Children's Day program deserves favorable comment. A wider use of these programs will not only give a Christian purpose to the children's festival day, but will also acquaint our church in a larger way with the necessity of the church's educational enterprise. The Children's Day Fund is productive of fine results and has helped over 25,000 young people to a higher education. It is our conviction that the fund should be adjusted to be of greater help to Methodist young people in our state universities as well as those in our church colleges.

ALBION COLLEGE.

With the Michigan Conference we share the responsibility for Albion College. It is our Church College and our one educational enterprise in the State of Michigan. With the great opportunity of the new reconstruction era before us, we must see to it that Albion College shall make a Christian educational contribution to the life of the world commensurate with the ability of Michigan Methodists.

That it is a duty there can be no question. The world stands in need of light and leading as never before. We have seen what happens to a nation when a people become regimentalized in their thinking by an official state educational propaganda. The example of Germany calls upon us and all that is within us to see to it that the integrity of our freedom and Christian purpose is made effective in our educational program. Industrially and socially the future of the world looks darker than most of us like to admit. Only one power can ultimately prevail, the power of knowledge and insight, a clear and vigorous understanding of where we are and an appreciation of the spiritual goal that is God's intention for the world.

Under the magnificent leadership of Dr. Dickie, Albion College has met the stress of the war days. His administration has been marked by wisdom and conservation. He has made every dollar of the college's endowment pay a maximum return. Under his presidency of 18 years not one dollar of the endowment has been lost. He calls attention to the fact that this collegiate year promises the largest student enrollment in the history of the college. This raises at once an immediate practical problem for the church. How shall the church meet the challenge of this increasingly large number of young people who say by the very fact that they enroll in the Church College—"Here we are; take four years of our lives and give us the very best possible training toward mature Christian character that will work in church and state." Can Michigan Methodists answer the challenge satisfactorily with the present plant, equipment and endowment at Albion?

Albion College last year had 486 students of college grade. Two hundred eighty-three were in the Freshman class and 47 were Seniors. The college has an endowment of $420,000 and a plant with an equipment valued at $330,000. Michigan Methodism has $750,000 invested in its major educational work. The annual income from all sources is about $65,000. Due to an arrangement made with the Joint Centenary Committee, under which agreement the college was to postpone its Endowment Fund campaign, $6,666.66 a year for three years is now an additional asset to the regular college income. The total income is now about $72,000.

The catalog of last year gave the college ten full teaching professors, one assistant professor and seven instructors in the College of Liberal Arts. The Conservatory of Music had five department heads. Twenty-three persons constituted the active teaching staff. A new department has been added for the next year, the Chair of Education, and further provision has been made for four assistant professors and one instructor. This will give the college a teaching staff of twenty-nine.

At the annual session of the Association of American Colleges in 1916, a study was submitted on "The Efficient College." This study was made by Dr. Calvin H. French, Assistant Secretary of the Presbyterian College Board, and Prof. Ernest D. Burton, of the University of Chicago, in collaboration with Dr. Thomas Nicholson, then Secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The committee based its findings on sixteen typical church colleges. The survey was made in 1916—before the present high price era had come to power. Based upon considerations of efficiency, this survey declared that a standard college of 500 students calls for a faculty of 51, yielding the equivalent of 44 full-time teachers and seven full-time administrative officers. The productive endowment should be $2,220,000, and the plant with equipment value of $1,000,000 making a total property of $3,220,000. The total income from all sources should be $176,000. This is the minimum requirement for a standard efficient college of 500 students. With 750 or 1,000 students, the requirements are all correspondingly higher. The proposed survey now being undertaken by the inter-church movement, will, in all probability not arrive at lower figures as a minimum basis for efficiency.

Thus it seems exceedingly conservative to suggest that Albion College should set itself to challenge Michigan Methodists for an addition of $1,500,000 to its endowment. This is imperative to give the college an adequate and well paid faculty. A poster prepared for the Harvard drive for $11,000,000 carries this slogan, "A motorman gets 60 cents an hour, a professor 18 cents, which is worth more, gentlemen, minding the train, or training the mind?" We have a Church College training and educating young people, but it is without a chair in Philosophy and Christian Interpretation, it is without a chair of Religious Education, it is without a chair of Missions. On campus and quadrangle the ministry will never attract, unless the church appeals and the appeal must be upon the same scholastic level with any other profession and business. It is not asking too much of the Church College to give an introduction to the facts concerning the field and work of the church.

In addition to the endowment need is the plant and the equipment. A minimum of $750,000 should be made available in the near future for a building program. This would give the much needed Administration Building, a Women's building and Gymnasium. The total, $2,250,000 is large but is not impossible if Michigan Methodism once becomes aware of its responsibility towards its Church Colfege.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Detroit Annual Conference registers its conviction that Albion College is the next logical claim upon the membership and constituency of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Michigan for recognition and expansion;

Be It Further Resolved, That the Detroit Annual Conference will give the Board of Trustees for Albion College, its loyal support in the development and promotion of a forward-looking program for the college.

RESOLUTIONS.

As we draw near the close of the sixty-fourth session of the Detroit Annual Conference we are impressed with its outstanding character as a session of vision and uplift and desire to express our deep appreciation of all that has contributed to its vision, heart-searching and challenge.

This session has been an epochal one. Opening amid exultations of victory over the accomplishment of the gigantic Centenary task of this past year, it has, from the opening hour with Bishop Edwin H. Hughes through the soul-stirring services of Conference Sunday, sounded the deep, clear note of evangelism, calling us to a rededication of all our powers to the main business of our ministry. We especially appreciate the high privilege of the extra day spent in spiritual retreat, facing our task, catching a new vision of what it means to be a minister of Jesus Christ, and kindling anew the altar fires of our own souls; and trust that this same high plane of spirituality and inspiration may be maintained in future sessions of the Conference.

The Conference is deeply indebted to Bishop Edwin H. Hughes for his generous contributions to the program, not only in his much appreciated lecture, "The Children of the Manse," but in his gripping presentations of the evangelistic challenge. To all others who brought inspiring messages, we extend our thanks, to none more than to our own prophets, George Elliott and M. S. Rice.

While we have been enjoying the high privileges of this session, our comforts and conveniences have been looked after in most generous fashion by the entertaining pastor, Dunning Idle, his assistants in the church office, the people of the Owosso and Corunna churches, who have extended us the hospitality of their homes, and the women of the Baptist Church who have furnished us splendid meals, none of whom we can fully repay for their kindness and service, further than to express our heartfelt thanks. We also wish to express our appreciation of the courtesies extended to the Conference by the Baptist and Congregational churches in opening their houses of worship for our use ,and by the Owosso Savings Bank in assisting generously in the handling of the financial business of the Conference.

We appreciate the extensive labors of the Secretary and his staff, the Statistician and Treasurer and their assistants, the Bureau of Transportation, the Board of Examiners, and other boards and committees who have given generously of their time in behalf of the Conference. We wish also to commend the Owosso Argus-Press and the Detroit papers for their reports of Conference proceedings.

To none other are we more indebted for the delight and profit of these days of privilege than to our own Bishop Theodore S. Henderson. For his searching, heart-to-heart messages "Moving the Previous Question," of our ministry, for the inspiring sermon of Conference Sunday and for his masterful and brotherly presidency of this Conference session, we thank him, and, praying God's blessings of strength and direction in his leadership of our great work this year, we hereby record our sincere hope that he may be continued as our residing bishop for the next quadrennium.

And lastly, we pledge to our presiding officer, to our district superintendents and to Almighty God, the devotion of all our powers to the doing of the humanly impossible tasks of the coming year, expecting victory through the leading and power of the Holy Spirit.

CONFERENCE STEWARDS' MEETINGS AT THE CENTENARY.

In response to a call by members of the conference stewards of the Detroit Conference, a meeting of such stewards as were in attendance at the Centenary Exposition was held in Central church, Columbus, Ohio, July 2 and 3, 1919; the following conferences being represented: Detroit, Des Moines, Erie, Genesee, Illinois, Lexington, Northeast Ohio, Northern Minnesota, Ohio, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Upper Iowa. During the final session Dr. Joseph B. Hingeley Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants, was in attendance.

A variety of matters were presented and acted on, and a committee, consisting of Rev. W. M. Ward, Detroit Conference; Rev. C. S. Mervine, Philadelphia Conference and Mr. Wesley Montgomery, Ohio Conference, was appointed to review the proceedings and prepare them for publication. This committee met at Pittsburg on July 29th and present the following as the recommendations of the Columbus meeting:

(1) That a loose leaf book of printed forms be provided by the Book Concern in which conference stewards may record the ministerial service of all the members and probationers of the conference; also the record of the husbands and the fathers of the widows and children, so that there may be a permanent record of all items which may affect the annuity rights of present or future conference claimants. When a minister is transferred to another conference, the secretary of the conference stewards shall forward the record of his ministerial service to the secretary of the conference stewards of the conference to which he is transferred.

(2) That ministers on detached service receive on retirement the same annuity as other retired ministers of their conference, provided that they do not receive from other pension funds an amount equal to their annuity claim on the conference.

(3) That churches or institutions which employ effective ministers shall forward each year to the conference stewards of the conference to which the minister belongs an amount equal to that paid by the churches of a like salary grade. In case of failure so to do the year or years not thus provided for shall not be reckoned as annuity years.

(4) That no minister who is under sixty-five years of age shall be retired unless he shall furnish to the Committee on Conference Relations a certificate of health for himself or his wife, from a qualified medical practitioner.

(The following is the action of the Colorado Conference in such a case: A minister who is sixty-five years of age or more and has served thirty-five years or more in the effective relation may be enrolled on the retired list at his request; but anyone lacking either or both of these qualifications can receive the retired relation only on a two-thirds ballot vote of the conference.)

(5) That each Annual Conference shall determine the time and manner of the payment of the claims. (The General Conference decided that a retired minister had no right to demand the payment of his full annuity in advance. Journal, 1916, p. 494.)

- (6) That paragraph 333, section 2 be changed, advancing the age of the dependent children from sixteen to eighteen, so that the phrase shall read "their children under eighteen years of age are conference claimants;" and that paragraph 341, section 3 be changed to make the claim of a child one-fourth of the claim of the father instead of one-fifth, so that the section shall read: "The term of the father's effective service shall determine the annuity claim of his child, which shall be one-fourth of the claim of the retired minister for such term."
- (7) That provision be made whereby a widow who has lost her claim by remarriage and is again widowed may have her claim restored by the Annual Conference, on the basis of her complete years of service; and that the General Conference be requested to direct the Judiciary Committee to consider its action concerning the extinction of a widows claim under certain conditions, as recorded in the Journal of 1916, page 493.

(8) That all members of the conference shall state clearly before the conference whether or not they have prorated the ministeral support with the conference claimants.

(9) That the names and addresses of the executive officers of the conference stewards be printed in the General Minutes and The Methodist Year Book.

(10) That conference stewards be not chosen on district lines, but in relation to efficiency; that the apportionments made to pastoral charges for the support of conference claimants be made by the conference stewards on the grade plan of the Commission on Finance, instead of basing them on the pastors' salaries; and that special pages be provided in the Conference Minutes for the purpose of printing the amounts apportioned, amounts paid, and the apportionments for the coming year for each pastoral charge.

(11) That we earnestly request the conference stewards to urge their conferences at the next session to apportion the entire amount necessary to pay the full annuity claims.

Please address all communications concerning these matters and report action taken by the Annual Conference or other bodies to

REV: W. M. WARD, Chariman, Wyandotte, Mich.

Your Committee to which was referred to resolutions of the Conference Stewards Meeting at the Centenary, recommend that the resolutions be presented as a memorial to the Several Conferences for their favorable consideration and that all of the resolutions which do not require legislation be adopted as the mode of procedure of the Detroit Conference.

THE CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD.

The Conference Deaconess Board deals especially with the personnel of the deaconesses serving in the territory covered by our Conference. The following Deaconesses have been approved as deaconesses for another year: Kate A. Blackburn, Rose M. Bradley, Martha J. Collins, Lillian B. Ellis, Sophia P. Getzer, Alice B. Shirey, Gladys L. Scriber, all of whom have been working in connection with Detroit churches; also Deborah B. Kerfoot, retired; Bessie Smith of Centenary Settlement, Detroit; Mildred Cline of the Children's Home, Ada Wiebe and Cora E. Wharton of Tillman Settlement, Detroit; Maude E. Greenough of the Court St., Flint, and Gladys Pautz and Nellie Stevens who are serving in Utah but continue to hold their relationship to this Board in view of the fact that they are in a territory served by a Mission Conference. Elizabeth Jennings and Jennie L. Lancaster, connected with Detroit churches; Glenna Eslinger connected with Centenary Mission, Detroit, and Ione Frink, connected with First Church Owosso, are probationers who have served in the conference. Miss Eslinger and Miss Lancaster are continued as probationers; the Misses Jennings and Fink were granted licenses and recommended for consideration. Miss Flossie Hawes of Cleveland, who desired for special reasons to be licensed and consecrated by the Detroit Conference, was, on the recommendation of the proper officials of the Northeast Ohio Conference, was granted her request. Lucy J. Palmer is house-mother at the Detroit Deaconess Home and Vera Jennings at the Children's Home in Highland Park.

The Children's Home, which is under Deaconess direction, has had a successful year. The White Christmas plan, under the direction of Mrs. Peter Stair, has been highly successful.

The expenses of the Home have increased over $1,000 during the year, but have been met by enlarged contributions from Detroit churches.

The terms of three members of the board expire this year—Mrs. G. H. Stalker, Elmer Houser, Mrs. A. L. Parker. The Board recommends the reelection of Mrs. Stalker and Elmer Houser, and the election of Mrs. A. H. Krum.

Made by order of the Board.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We believe the Epworth League should function in the life of the church. That its chief object is not to perpetuate itself but to render the largest possible service to the church and the kingdom.

We therefore commend the central office plans in charging the leagues with the responsibility for the Mission Study Classes of the church, and urge every chapter to conduct classes in Home Mission Study during October and November and in Foreign Missions during January and February.

We pledge ourselves to heartily support the Life Service Program of the Centenary. We rejoice that Miss Geraldine Townsend is to directly represent us in the Epworth League work of China. We bid her God speed and pledge her our loyal support.

Let every pastor interest himself in the Michigan Epworth League Institutes, secure the attendance of his young people and in every way seek to strengthen the hands of the staff in promoting these training camps of Michigan Methodism.

Respectfully submitted,

F. A. LENDRUM, LEWIS KEAST.

PART VII.—PLAN OF CONFERENCE COURSES OF STUDY.

(A) UNDERGRADUATE COURSES.

1. Instructors and students are urged to read carefully paragraphs 596 to 602 of the Discipline of 1916.

2. For each of the five years work of this course of study there is a little volume, Directions and Helps, which each instructor and each student should possess and follow in the preparation and examinations of this course of study. This book is 50 cents and can be purchased only of the Methodist Book Concern.

3. Examinations cannot be taken until the "required written work" has been completed and in the instructor's hands. Each instructor is to divide the required written work of his subject into approximately eight equal parts, these eight parts to be sent to the instructor one part each month, beginning November first to June first respectively. These monthly installments will be criticised and, if postage is enclosed by the student, they will be returned. It is the desire of the Board that the required written work of the four studies for examination, of the books for collateral reading, and of the special homiletics be carried on simultaneously.

4. An undergraduate summer school will be maintained at Albion sometime during the month of July. The Summer School is officially supported by the board as the channel through which the board is to function in the doing of much of its work for the student body. The Conference finances the school in such a manner as to reduce the cost of attendance to the student. All students are expected to be present.

5. Examinations in all studies of the course will be conducted only on the Tuesday before Conference convenes and at the close of the Conference Undergraduate School of Theology. All required written work must be in and graded by the instructor before the student can be admitted to the examination.

6. The required written work will be graded on the basis of 100 per cent as will also the examinations. The average of these two marks will be the final passing mark, providing neither of the two marks is below 60 per cent.

7. Anyone expecting to be a candidate for admission on trial should forward his name and address for enrollment to the registrar as early in the year as possible. Studies for the admission year will be taught at the summer school of theology. Not only are all admission students expected to be present, but this work is also offered to all supplies in order that they may become better fitted for their work whether entering the Conference later or not.

8. Each student is required to pay annually a fee of $2.50 per year. This fee is payable at the Summer School of Theology, and is divided on the basis of $2.00 for the Summer School and 50 cents for the Board of Examiners. This fee is to be paid each year from admission until graduation from the course of study unless excused from studies by the vote of the Conference.

9. Each candidate for admission on trial and for admission into full membership must appear before the Committee on Ministerial Equipment during the early days of the Conference session.

10. Those local preachers desiring to take the local preachers course please communicate with the Chairman or the Registrar.

(B) GRADUATE COURSES OF STUDY.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, The need of a definite program for graduate study for men who have completed the Conference Course has been keenly felt and frequently agitated in our Conference and throughout the church at large, and

Whereas, The General Conference Commission on Course of Study has announced plans for the meeting of this need, and

Whereas, Said plans are admirable and challenging in their scope and embody many excellent features, such as,

(a) Provision, not for a uniform course for all, but for a number of briefer courses, or units of study, each of which would treat some single field of study (as for instance, Old and New Testament, Theology, History, Religious Education, Social Service, Missions, etc.), and from which the student could choose according to his inclination.

(b) Arrangement for doing of one's work in any unit by the Correspondence method, under the direction of an expert in the field covered by that unit, and selected by the General Conference Commission on Course of Study.

(c) The possibility of graduation and of a diploma upon completion of any five units of such graduate study.

 (\bar{d}) Provision for a local committee for purposes of promotion and with a secretary through whom the student may register.

(e) A fee so nominal as to be within the reach of all. (An enrollment fee of two dollars for each course, with one dollar per year additional if the work is not completed in one year and a diploma fee of five dollars) and

Whereas, The first course or unit offered, which is to be in the Gospel of John and is to be in charge of Prof. Rollin H. Walker of Ohio Wesleyan University, will be ready this fall, and

Whereas, Work in such courses of study could be supplemented by an institute program through which all our men and not merely those taking such studies, could be immensely profited Therefore, Be It Resolved,

(a) That we, as a Conference give our hearty endorsement and encouragement to the plan.

(b) That we appoint the following as a committee to promote, develop and carry out the plan:

King D. Beach, Chairman. Frank N. Miner, Secretary. George Elliott, Milton S. Bennett, S. Arthur Cook.

Until we can more nearly meet the Disciplinary allowance for our Claimants there will be continued need of making large allowances to our Claimants from necessitous funds.

We therefore gladly and gratefully acknowledge the relinquishment of the Annuity Claims of Rev. George Weir of London, Canada; Mrs. E. Foster, of Gladwin, and Mrs. W. Will, of Saginaw, in behalf of the Claimants who have received the necessitous allowances.

We also thank the Walled Lake Sunday School and Mr. Milton Kelsey of the Azalia Charge for their gifts for the same purpose.

PART VIII—HISTORICAL.

MEMOIRS.

SAMUEL JENNINGS.

This able and devoted minister of the Gospel had his birth in that culture-plot of primitive Methodist piety, Cornwell, England, being born in the town of Colstock, May 16, 1856. At the early age of seventeen, he "went on the plan" as a local preacher in the Wesleyan Connection.

His adventurous soul heard the call of the western world in 1882, when he emigrated, entering the Newfoundland Conference, in which he travelled eight years, coming to the United States in 1890, and joining the Detroit Annual Conference in 1891, in which he served the following pastoral charges: Whitmore Lake, Ruby, Memphis, Oxford, Saginaw, East Grand Boulevard, Detroit, St. Clair, Perry and Davison.

As a sequel of a major surgical operation during his last pastorate his failing strength made it necessary for him to seek the retired relation in 1918. He moved with his family to Detroit and having secured a comfortable home settled down for a well earned rest, surrounded by his much loved library and in the neighborhood of valued friends. It was after an afternoon visit to one of these, a call in which he showed no abatement of mental strength or of conversational brilliancy that on his way home in the eventide he died suddenly in the street, passing out of earth's shadows to the eternal day.

Samuel Jennings was a big man—big of body, brain and heart. With but modest educational opportunities, his aspiring mind urged him to the most strenuous self culture.

Intellectually he was a thoroughly modern man and had mastered the mind of the age. Well versed in the methods and results of the critical school, he was able to use them constructively to vitalize his conceptions of religious truth. He was a prodigious reader, especially in the realm of modern European history, to which he brought the interpretative insight of a philosophical mind.

He was a socially minded man, having the deepest sympathy with the aspirations of the common man and especially of the industrial group. In his preaching, he was skilled in the application of scriptural truths and kingdom ideals to the problems of modern social life.

His stores of varied learning made him a most entertaining conversationalist. Fond of personal argument he had the spirit of British "fair play" which made him always ready both to "give and take" hard controversial blows. His antagonist needed always to be wary and accurate in the statement of facts to avoid ignominious defeat. These words are written as the fruitage of most stimulating experiences.

His ministry was fruitful, not only in lives won for the Kingdom but in the building of character and the enrichment of the life of the community. He carried with him and created a "Kingdom Climate" wherever he went.

On Sunday, January 13, 1919, he paid a visit to a home where he was ever a welcome guest, never was he more mentally alert than in the religious converse of that day. On his way home he fell dead in the street from an internal hemorrhage. With him, sudden death was sudden glory.

He was buried at St. Clair, Michigan, on January 16, 1919. The entire community of this, his most cherished pastorate, united in tenderest tribute to his honored memory.

Brother Jennings was married in England in 1886, to Miss Annie Curtice, who with one daughter survive him. They built a holy and a happy home, from which his bodily presence indeed has gone, but in which he still lives, a precious memory, a present inspiration and a holy hope.

REV. GEORGE F. THURSTON.

Rev. George F. Thurston was born at Orion, Michigan, August 18, 1884, and died in the parsonage at Samaria, March 2, 1919.

His boyhood days were spent on the farm and in the country schools. He graduated from the Orion high school and from the Ohio Northern University, Ada, Ohio. He was united in marriage to Miss Millie McVean in June, 1908, who with three children, Eugene, Homer and Dorothy, mourn his loss.

He entered the ministry in 1907 and served in the following pastorates: St. Charles, Flat Rock, Munising and Samaria. He had suffered from heart trouble for several years, but the immediate cause of his death was pneumonia, following a second attack of influenza.

George Thurston was a successful minister of the Gospel, and the secret of his success is explained by the words of an official member of the Samaria church, who said "his life preached a sermon and explained the Gospel seven days in the week."

Furneral services were held in the Samaria church on Wednesday, March 5, 1919, at 8 a. m. At this early hour the church was crowded with his people. His district superintendent, Rev. Walter R. Fruit, had direction of the service and was assisted by Rev. W. S. Smith, of Milan; Rev. Richard Rowe, of Azalia; Rev. John Somers, of Dundee, and Rev. Mr. Musser of the Baptist church.

The final services were held at the home of his parents in Pontiac, Mich., conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. H. Bready, assisted by Rev. A. E. Healy of the First Church, Rev. Davie of Wilson Avenue, Rev. C. L. Adams of Oxford, Rev. F. I. Walker of Orion, Dr. E. D. Dimond of Flint making the address.

His fellow ministers feel that one of the choicest servants of the Master has gone from their midst.

REV. M. C. HAWKS, D.D.

Matthew Chantrill Hawks was born in Cook county, Ill., August 18, 1851, and went home to his very great reward from Glendale, Cal., May 8, 1919. He was trained to honest and faithful work. A real and vital religious experience came to him when he was a lad of nine. He was married in 1873. He joined the Detroit Conference in 1879 on probation and in full membership in 1881. He served ten pastorates, covering a period of thirty-four years. Many of these pastorates were in the most influential churches of the conference.

REV. M. C. HAWKS, D.D.

Matthew Chantrill Hawks was born in Cook county, Ill., August 18, 1851, and went home to his very great reward from Glendale, Cal., May 8, 1919. He was trained to honest and faithful work. A real and vital religious experience came to him when he was a lad of nine. He was married in 1873. He joined the Detroit Conference in 1879 on probation and in full membership in 1881. He served ten pastorates, covering a period of thirty-four years. Many of these pastorates were in the most influential churches of the conference.

Dr. Hawks was a preacher of rare ability, forceful, clear and original in the presentation of truth. He never ceased to be a painstaking student. Thoughtful men crowded to his ministry because he always had something to say. In 1895 Albion College conferred upon him the Doctor of Divinity degree.

Dr. Hawks was not only a preacher of righteousness, but he was an outspoken and active champion of every good cause, and open and unequivocal enemy of every foul thing. The saloon element, in every town where he held a pastorate, soon came to know him as a man who did not compromise with evil. When the roll of the heroic souls who carried on the fight to make Michigan dry is called his name will be well up toward the top of the list.

While Brother Hawks was a keen and discerning scholar he never ceased to be a deeply spiritual preacher.

The gospel of the Christ was always and ever his theme. He knew also how to win men by personal contact. Many strong men are now living the Christian life or enjoying the rewards of such in heaven because of Dr. Hawks' faithful efforts.

Dr. Hawks was a many-sided man. He was a musician and artist of no mean ability. He loved nature and knew how to commune with her. He knew the ways of the birds and other creatures of the woods. He was skilled in woodcraft. The little lads of his Sunday School were delighted to gather about him while he made bows and arrows and kites for them.

This Christian nobleman had a rare genius for making friends. He was rich in the men and women who respected him and loved him. In all his pastorate he made friendships that lasted through the years. He gripped hearts for time and eternity. He saw good in men and magnified it and exulted in it and idealized it. The writer has walked in the inspiration of this friendship for forty-four years. I never could go uncomforted while he lived. While direct communications are not possible from our side of the veil, yet Christ is our mediator in another sense than that for redemption purposes.

There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy seat.

There is left to mourn his loss his beloved wife and sister, noble souls who must now walk life's way without this strong arm on which to lean. There will go out to them the love of the many friends of the churches in the cities where their loved one served.

The final burial was in Arlington Heights, Cook county, Illinois. The funeral service at Glendale was in charge of Rev. Chas. Scott, grandson of Rev. Squire E. Warren, of blessed memory.

O. W. WILLITS.

REV. C. B. CLARK.

Charles B. Clark was born in Lockport, N. Y., April 25, 1842, came to Michigan when a mere lad and received his education in the public schools of this state which was largely supplemented by close and continued reading and study of science, history and other works which pertained more directly to his chosen profession. He kept abreast of the times and was one of the best informed men in the community, being especially interested in all matters pertaining to our recent world war.

In the hour of his country's peril he volunteered for service, enlisting in the Tenth Michigan Infantry and was honorably discharged because of a prolonged siege of typhoid fever. On February 10, 1864 having regained his health, he enlisted as a private in Company F, First Regiment, Michigan Cavalry. He was again discharged from service January 9, 1865, his left ankle and leg being seriously injured in a fall from his horse. He was a true American soldier and no man ever had occasion to say that Charles B. Clark was ever recreant to any trust committed to him by his country and with commendable pride he wore to the last his Grand Army button.

On September 20, 1868 he was united in marriage to Miss Rachel Somers in whom he found a true companion and helper in all that half a century of life together brought to them. The three children born to them were James B. Clark of El Paso, Texas, William B. Clark, whose death January 9, 1916, occurred while he was in business in Oxford, and Earnest B. Clark of Detroit.

Mr. Clark's work in the ministry began in the Methodist Protestant church in which he received his ordination fifty years ago last fall. In 1885 he changed his church affiliation being received into the Detroit conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, in which he gave 26 years of zealous, heroic service, retiring from active work in 1911, though he supplied a few churches after he made his permanent home in Oxford. His work was strongly evangelistic and because of his faithful work many were brought into the Kingdom of God and became efficient workers in the church of their choice.

Dr. Hawks was a preacher of rare ability, forceful, clear and original in the presentation of truth. He never ceased to be a painstaking student. Thoughtful men crowded to his ministry because he always had something to say. In 1895 Albion College conferred upon him the Doctor of Divinity degree.

Dr. Hawks was not only a preacher of rightcousness, but he was an outspoken and active champion of every good cause, and open and unequivocal enemy of every foul thing. The saloon element, in every town where he held a pastorate, soon came to know him as a man who did not compromise with evil. When the roll of the heroic souls who carried on the fight to make Michigan dry is called his name will be well up toward the top of the list.

While Brother Hawks was a keen and discerning scholar he never ceased to be a deeply spiritual preacher.

The gospel of the Christ was always and ever his theme. He knew also how to win men by personal contact. Many strong men are now living the Christian life or enjoying the rewards of such in heaven because of Dr. Hawks' faithful efforts.

Dr. Hawks was a many-sided man. He was a musician and artist of no mean ability. He loved nature and knew how to commune with her. He knew the ways of the birds and other creatures of the woods. He was skilled in woodcraft. The little lads of his Sunday School were delighted to gather about him while he made bows and arrows and kites for them.

This Christian nobleman had a rare genius for making friends. He was rich in the men and women who respected him and loved him. In all his pastorate he made friendships that lasted through the years. He gripped hearts for time and eternity. He saw good in men and magnified it and exulted in it and idealized it. The writer has walked in the inspiration of this friendship for forty-four years. I never could go uncomforted while he lived. While direct communications are not possible from our side of the veil, yet Christ is our mediator in another sense than that for redemption purposes.

There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy seat.

There is left to mourn his loss his beloved wife and sister, noble souls who must now walk life's way without this strong arm on which to lean. There will go out to them the love of the many friends of the churches in the cities where their loved one served.

The final burial was in Arlington Heights, Cook county, Illinois. The funeral service at Glendale was in charge of Rev. Chas. Scott, grandson of Rev. Squire E. Warren, of blessed memory.

REV. C. B. CLARK.

Charles B. Clark was born in Lockport, N. Y., April 25, 1842, came to Michigan when a mere lad and received his education in the public schools of this state which was largely supplemented by close and continued reading and study of science, history and other works which pertained more directly to his chosen profession. He kept abreast of the times and was one of the best informed men in the community, being especially interested in all matters pertaining to our recent world war.

In the hour of his country's peril he volunteered for service, enlisting in the Tenth Michigan Infantry and was honorably discharged because of a prolonged siege of typhoid fever. On February 10, 1864 having regained his health, he enlisted as a private in Company F, First Regiment, Michigan Cavalry. He was again discharged from service January 9, 1865, his left ankle and leg being seriously injured in a fall from his horse. He was a true American soldier and no man ever had occasion to say that Charles B. Clark was ever recreant to any trust committed to him by his country and with commendable pride he wore to the last his Grand Army button.

On September 20, 1868 he was united in marriage to Miss Rachel Somers in whom he found a true companion and helper in all that half a century of life together brought to them. The three children born to them were James B. Clark of El Paso, Texas, William B. Clark, whose death January 9, 1916, occurred while he was in business in Oxford, and Earnest B. Clark of Detroit.

His work was strongly evangelistic and because of his faithful work many were brought into the Kingdom of God and became efficient workers in the church of their choice.

As a member of the Detroit Conference he served the following charges: Bancroft, two years; Marlette, five years; Richmond, three years; Sand Beach, two years; Davis, one year; Webberville, three years; Davisburg, four years; Montrose, four years; Seymour Lake, two years; besides supplying more or less after his retirement.

Mr. Clark was a good man, adorning his profession of the Christian faith by a well ordered life and for whom his neighbors have only words of appreciation and commendation.

The funeral services were held at his late home on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock in charge of his pastor, Rev. C. L. Adams, assisted by Rev. Eugene Yager of this village, Rev. G. B. Marsh of Romeo, Rev. R. H. Bready of Pontiac and Rev. J. B. Goss of Flint. The active pall bearers were selected from the ministers present, the burial being made in the Oxford cemetery, Rev. D. M. Ward of the Michigan Conference and Rev. F. I. Walker of Orion assisting the pastor in the burial service.

"Angels, sing on! Your faithful watches keeping; Sing on sweet fragments of the songs above; Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping, And life's long shadows break in cloudless love."

JOHN WRIGHT.

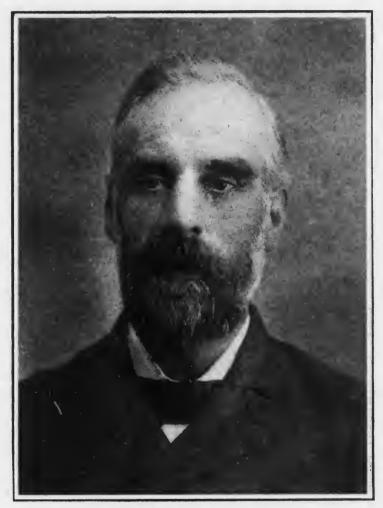

John Wright was born in Blyton, Lincolnshire, England, May 27, 1853 and died at his home in Ann Arbor, September 5, 1919. He received his education in England, being for some years an attendant at Oxford. In 1881 he was married to Charlotte Ann Thomas and in 1882 came to Canada where he did local preaching for two years. In the spring of 1884 he came to Detroit and that fall entered the Detroit Conference. He served twelve years in the Conference, entering the retired relation in 1897.

His charges were: Whitmore Lake, Rawsonville, Commerce, Shaftsburg, Webberville, Parshalville, Seymour Lake, Clifford.

Brother Wright was a man of unusual appreciative qualities. He was an ardent lover of flowers. The beautiful in truth and feeling always attracted him. The best in literature was not beyond his power of properly appraising. He was fond of poetry. The long time limitations of bodily strength kept him from the activities of those blessed with health and strength, but his inner life was enriched with most interesting memories. The Scriptures in their beautiful and majestic passages were in his heart and at his tongue's end. He quoted from them freely in the prayer meeting the night before he died.

Brother Wright leaves a widow and nine children, five boys and four girls.

REV. JOHN WRIGHT.

MRS. EDWIN W. STRICKER.

Ruth Lillian Rugg was born in Detroit, Mich., Sept. 16, 1895, and died in the city of her nativity Jan. 1, 1919. She was the eldest of a family of four girls, whom the writer remembers in their childhood as charming little misses with unusual beauty and grace of action. When the pastor called at the home they were wont to meet him at the door and then gather around him and converse with him while he stayed. They lived in the near vicinity of the Mary W. Palmer Methodist church, and grew up in a reverent and religious way, led by a faithful and devoted mother.

Ruth joined the church when about nine years of age and consistently gave her life in full consecration to the Lord. She was glad to be in the kingdom and loved its activities. From her thirteenth year she played the piano in the prayer meeting and one of her rules of conduct was not to allow any other engagement to interfere with her attendance upon the midweek means of grace.

She was united in marriage with Rev. Edwin W. Stricker, August 31, 1917, and they began their ministry in the Methodist church at Utica following the conference in September. At the conference of 1918 Brother Stricker was appointed to Redford charge, and they entered upon their work there with high hopes and bright prospects, which were not to be realized in the way that they planned, for now Ruth is in heaven, and Edwin must resume his work alone.

The prevailing influenza preventing their public ministry for a time they planned to spend the holidays at Mother Rugg's home at 437 1-2 Hamilton avenue, Detroit, where on Christmas day Edwin was stricken with the disease, being quickly followed by Ruth and two of her sisters, four being sick in bed in the house when Ruth passed away. The others came back from the border land to continue the journey here, but Ruth went on before. Conscious till the last she died as she had lived in the calm of holy faith and in full resignation to the will of God. The purity of her life was reflected in the beauty of her face, even in the chill of death, and those around who knew her best likened her to the angels.

Our philosophy does not solve the mystery of her early call from earth, where such as she are sorely needed; but our faith sees an eternity of development and opportunity before her, and we highly resolve to be more like her in purity, devotion and faith in full expectation of being with her again where life is not measured by years and hearts are not pained by parting.

Funeral services were held at the Mary W. Palmer church, where her religious life had its public development and were in charge of the pastor, Rev. Russell Hopkins, assisted by former Pastors W. G. Nixon and C. W. Baldwin. Burial was in Elmwood cemetery among the fine forest trees that guard with grateful shade that silent city.

C. W. BALDWIN.

MRS. A. F. BOURNS.

Lucy Swift was born in Plymouth, Michigan, June 20, 1841. She died at her home in Seattle, Washington, January 19, 1919, aged seventy-seven years.

She was united in marriage with Rev. A. F. Bourns of the Detroit Conference, August 15, 1864. This happy union continued for about fifty-five years at which time it was interrupted by death, this being the first death which had occurred in the immediate family circle during those fifty-five years.

Besides being a faithful worker in the church proper, her sympathies and activities embraced other agencies and organizations, which had for their object the betterment of mankind, and prominent among these organizations as she understood it, was the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. She is on record as having declared her belief that the work she performed in connection with the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was the most important work of her life. Her husband being the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Adrian, gave her a standing which enabled her to be very efficient. She was at once elected president of the local organization and later president of the organization of the state.

The "Woman's Crusade" as the movement was first called, had its origin in Ohio, in 1874, just across the state line from Adrian and its influence was quickly felt in the city of Adrian and Southern Michigan. The interest was intense from the start and became more so as the days passed by. One of the first benefits of the Crusade, was the enlistment of the women as public speakers. Until that time they did not know that they could speak in public. Even the Methodist women who had acquired a little confidence in the art of public speaking, were slow to exercise their gifts in that direction. Mrs. Bourns declared that the only idea she had about woman's speaking in public, was associated with the class meeting. But the necessities of the case required more than the class meeting.

And so it was that the women began to stand upon their feet and talk. First the Methodist women, then the others. This one feature of the Crusade has done much for the efficiency of women, in the church and out of it.

One of the questions that confronted the women in the beginning, was what should the organization be called. "Woman's Crusade" was too indefinite. Some wanted to call it "Woman's Temperance Union" and others, "Woman's Christian Temperance Union." Mrs. Bourns was insistent upon having the word Christian in the name. Others being of the same mind, it was so named.

And the name has had a large influence in the usefulness of the organization. It was and is a Christian organization.

A single incident in connection with the work at Adrian will show the difficulties they had to meet. One of their methods was to visit the saloons and pray with the keepers and ask them to give up their business.

In one case when about a dozen of the women, led by Mrs. Bourns, went into a saloon, the keeper turned the key and locked them in. Here they remained for several hours, where they endured the gibes and curses and threats and tobacco smoke of the keeper and his friends, while the authorities prepared legal papers for their release.

Another form of religious work in which this good woman was deeply interested, was the cause of missions. She gladly gave of her substance and of her sympathies and her activities to this cause, which lay so near to her heart. She belonged to, and labored in, both societies, the Home and the Foreign, with equal zeal and pleasure.

She held advanced views concerning the value of education for women as well as for men and she herself was a graduate of the High School of Ann Arbor, the State University not having as yet opened its doors to women.

She held advanced views on Woman Suffrage and did what she could to promote it. It gave her great joy to cast her first ballot, which she did in a recent election in the State of Washington.

And last, but not least, among her causes of rejoicing, was the prevalence of the prohibition of the liquor traffic throughout the land.

Appropriate funeral services were held January 21, from the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Seattle, under the direction of Rev. J. E. Crowther, D. D., pastor, who was assisted in the public exercises by Doctors George A. Landen and John O. Foster. The burial was in beautiful Lake View Cemetery.

Mrs. Bourns passed from this world to the other without a struggle. Through the day she attended to her household duties as usual. At six o'clock she enjoyed her evening meal, and upon retiring indulged in her usual bath. On her way from her bath room to her bedroom, she halted a moment and gave her husband a "Goodnight" kiss and went on. In the morning he went to her room to awaken her, but she was not there.

She had gone: "Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him, And lies down to pleasant dreams."

Under a little mound in the cemetery at Seattle, Washington, she sleeps well.

"Blessed are the dead."

Who die in the Lord."

A. F. BOURNS.

MRS. LEVI. L. HOUGHTON.

Laura J. Morgan was born October 6, 1841 in Troy township, Michigan, and died at Birmingham, Michigan, February 3, 1919. In 1861 she was married to James H. Pearsall who died in 1904. After four year's widowhood she was married to Rev. L. L. Houghton, a retired minister and beloved brother of the Detroit Conference. This last union was a happy one, and for nearly ten years these two walked together in delightful harmony and as companions in good works.

Her influence among her many friends in Birmingham and elsewhere was always fine and helpful. She experienced religion at twenty-five years of age and was a devoted member of the church for over forty years.

Mrs. Houghton was greatly interested in general church work and especially in missionary work, supporting a native girl of India in school for many years. She was always kind, cheerful and helpful in all personal relations.

After a comparatively brief sickness she passed away surrounded by loving friends and relatives at the home in Birmingham, thus bringing to a close the earthly life, but opening to her the eternal one. As a Christian of unusual attainments she has gone to her happy rewards.

Besides her husband, Rev. L. L. Houghton she leaves one daughter, Mrs. Chas. Newman, of Birmingham, together with a host of friends. The funeral was held in Birmingham Methodist church, February 6, with her pastor, Rev. Earl R. Rice in charge. A former pastor, Rev. C. E. Wakefield, and the pastors of the four local churches assisted. She was tenderly laid to rest in Birmingham cemetery.

The goodness of her beautiful life still like precious ointment, refreshes our lives.

EARL R. RICE.

MARY E. DONNELLY.

Mrs. Mary E. Donnelly has gone to her reward. She made her Christianity a matter of life each day, in kindly counsel and deeds of charity. She passed to her reward April 5, 1919, in Alpena.

Mary E. Bratton was born in Pennsylvania in 1828. She was married to Hugh L. Campbell, who gave his life to the cause of the Union in 1864. Of this marriage two children survive, Chas. B. Campbell and W. H. Campbell. In 1871 she came to Michigan and was united in marriage to Rev. Wm. Donnelly, a member of the Detroit Conference, who served Alpena church two terms. In 1886 he passed to his reward and since that time she has made her home with a son, W. H. Campbell and family, who cared for her most tenderly.

Mrs. Donnelly was a most earnest and devoted Christian, cheerful, optimistic, interested, alert and ever busy. The welfare of others always occupied her attention and time. Reform movements and progress of the Kingdom gave her keen delight. She was a life-long member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and has given splendid service to the Kingdom. "She hath done what she could." "Her works do follow her."

H. W. KUHLMAN.

MRS. CHARLES E. BENSON.

The citizens of Davison were thoroughly shocked Friday morning, February 7, 1919, when the news gained circulation that Mrs. Charles E. Benson had passed away after an illness of less than two hours. Cerebral hemorrhage was given as the cause of death.

Candace Dawdy was born in Canada 74 years ago and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dawdy. She was united in marriage to Rev. Charles E. Benson at Canboro, Ontario, on March 1, 1869, and was his faithful helpmate on all his succeeding pastorates in Canada and Michigan. Mr. Benson was an elder in the Niagara, Ontario, conference for 15 years and came to the Detroit Conference in the fall of 1882, and occupied pastorates in the following order: Bancroft, Linden, Wall Lake, Perry, Mt. Morris, Vernon, West Branch, Davison, and Bancroft. About five years ago Mr. Benson gave up active work in the pulpit and with his wife lived a retired life in Davison.

Mrs. Benson has not been in good health for about twelve years and for the past few years much of the work that formerly fell to her lot in the home had been done by her husband, who looked after her every need with jealous care. Her kindly nature endeared her to all and many citizens of Michigan, besides Davisonians, regret her sudden taking away.

Deceased is survived by her husband and one son, Rev. E. C. C. Benson of Farmington.

The funeral services were held in the Davison M. E. church Sunday afternoon, and were conducted by the pastor Rev. Fred H. Townsend, assisted by Rev. H. A. Huey, of the Baptist church, interment being in Davison cemetery. Relatives in attendance were Rev. E. C. C. Benson, Mrs. Minnie Pratt and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cruger of Flint, and Mrs. Ida Love of Morrice.

MRS. J. W. CAMPBELL.

Christine Horsburgh was born in Dublin, Ireland, of Scotch parents, May 3, 1869, and died at Milford, Mich., September 1, 1919. She came with her parents to Walkerville when but a child. They moved to Windsor, Ont., where she attended the high school, and was a teacher in the schools of that city at sixteen years of age. Her parents died when she was quite young. At seventeen years she was converted and was associated with the First Methodist church of Windsor, and an active worker. She attended the Detroit Business University and served as bookkeeper with a wholesale firm in Windsor for a time.

Miss Horsburgh was united in marriage with Rev. J. W. Campbell at Lexington, September 19, 1893, and began her work in the parsonage there.

For twenty-six years she has been a most efficient worker in the church, being competent, and always ready to fill any place where she was needed.

She served for many years as an officer in the conference and district Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies. She was a life member of the Queen Esther Society and a perpetual member of the Conference Woman's Home Society.

Her affliction, which lasted more than nine weeks, was a most painful one, but her patience outmatched the suffering and her fervent expressions of confidence in Jesus evidenced her vital relation with Him. She was caught in the storm but she had her eye on the shepherd among the hills and he was watching her. Monday was her coronation day, and she has gone to her reward, to a crown filled with stars.

She leaves to mourn her departure, her husband and two brothers, Messrs. Angus and David Horsburgh of Windsor, and a wide circle of friends.

The funeral service was held in the parsonage at Milford conducted by the district superintendent, Rev. E. J. Warren, assisted by Rev. W. B. Weaver, Rev. Russell H. Bready and Rev. F. F. Fitchett, who delivered the address. The young ladies of the Queen Esther Circle acted as a guard of honor. The burial took place in the village cemetery at Milford.

MRS. J. B. OLIVER.

After nearly seventy-nine years of life, forty of which were spent in the itinerancy of the Detroit Conference, this devout soul escaped from a pain-worn body and left this world June 29 last, and her life passed into treasured memory for her four sons, three daughters, fourteen grandchildren, two great grandchildren, her one sister and her lonely husband. For several years she had been just outside the heavenly gate, knocking for admission, and yearningly hoping it would open for her some Sabbath day. She was Scotch and prized the Lord's day above the other days of the week and wished that her entrance into heaven might occur on that day: "And it was so."

Grace Eliza McNeill was born in Charlottetown, Prince Edwards Island, November 1, 1840, and within a few years the family settled on the banks of the St. Clair river. March 7, 1866, she and J. B. Oliver were married and lived for some years at Memphis, until Brother Oliver's call to the ministry became so clear

Oliver were married and lived for some years at Memphis, until Brother Oliver's call to the ministry became so clear to his friends and to himself, that he left the plow for the pulpit, and their home was appointed for them year by year. They wrought successively and successfully at Croswell, Brockway, Saginaw (Ames), Henderson, Bennington, Bancroft, Plymouth, Deerfield, Denton and Dearborn. A fall upon an icy sidewalk at Plymouth injured Mrs. Oliver so seriously that she did not get free from the hurt till she exchanged bodies. They retired in 1906 and lived in Highland Park, and Mrs. Oliver was a confirmed invalid most of this period. The discipline of suffering was borne with marvelous fortitude and her devotion to sacred things-to prayer, Bible reading and meditation rivaled the exercises of the saintly mystics. Her "conversation" was in heaven. The invisible realm was more to her than the visible and the atmosphere of heaven has ever surrounded her. She was a Christian from her birth, and at fifteen was blessed with a clear sense of assurance. Her last sentence shortly before going was, "Of course I do," and it was in response to: "Do you know the Saviour?" Other questions brought no answer from her lips, and this question followed them. Her sister, Mrs. Lucy A. Lester, cared for her during the past nine years and her husband's assiduous attention was rare beyond description. The services were in charge of her pastor, W. E. Marvin, and were shared in by C. W. Baldwin, C. B. Allen, G. S. Hickey, J. E. Jacklin, Geo. Durr, S. W. Bird, C. E. Stedman, F. L. Fitch, R. D. Hopkins and D. H. Yokum.-J. E. J.
